

2024/25 Revenue grant funding

Listening Learning Leading

Organisation	What the organisation does?	Amount awarded 24/25
Oxfordshire South & Vale Citizens Advice Bureau	Local charity and member of the national Citizens Advice network. Provide residents with free and confidential advice for all types of enquiries (Benefits, work, debt and money, consumer, housing, family, law and courts, immigration and health)	£119,222
Riverside Counselling Service	Riverside supports adults and young people from the age of 12 years across South Oxfordshire who face challenges with their mental health and emotional well-being. They provide counselling on a one-to-one basis alongside a variety of therapeutic groups, workshops, community training and courses for professionals.	£22,784
The Thomley Hall Centre Limited	Thomley provides play, leisure and learning opportunities for people of all abilities and disabilities at our spacious indoor and outdoor facility.	£35,000
Didcot Train Inspiring Young People	Didcot Train support for the safe and positive development of the Young People of Didcot and its immediate surroundings for the benefit of themselves, their families, our community, residents and society.	£12,574
MyVision Oxfordshire (formally Oxfordshire Association for the Blind)	MyVision provides support and services for blind and partially sighted, including: information and advice, equipment demonstration and loan, technology training, counselling, befriending (telephone and in person), social groups and sports, children's activities, awareness raising and campaigning.	£13,114
Community First Oxfordshire	Community First Oxfordshire is a community development charity working with communities across the county to strengthen community infrastructure and resilience. Through newsletters, engagement events, Community Led Plans, community action webinars, Community transport, advice and support for community buildings and enterprise	£9,249

NOMAD Youth and Community Project	Nomad supports children/young people and their parents/carers, particularly those who are marginalized and disadvantaged through economic and/or complex social issues and living in Henley and the surrounding area, including Nettlebed, Stoke Row, Bix, Shiplake, Woodcote and Sonning Common.	£7,529
My Life My Choice (MLMC)	MLMC are an independent, multi-award winning user-led charity (including the Queen's Award for Voluntary Service 2017) with all 15 of our trustees having a learning disability. As well as promoting choice, empowerment and participation, they provide volunteering, training, social and paid work opportunities that combat loneliness and isolation and lead to more fulfilling lives.	£6,596
Style Acre	Style Acre empowers 270 adults with learning disabilities and autism to live life to the full through; supported living, community hubs, outreach services, gardening, work placements and Ways to Wellness project.	£7,239
The Maple Tree	The Maple Tree is a community charity providing play-based early learning activities for the under 5s and their parents and carers. They aim to give every local child and family the best start in life, running sessions for babies and young children with their parents, parenting workshops and courses such as First Aid, one to one advice and support, whole family learning activities and Health Visitor clinics. They currently run sessions every weekday from premises in Wheatley, a weekly outreach session in Forest Hill, and a monthly family fun session on Saturdays. They also offer an online programme of songs, stories and activities for people who may find it challenging to attend in person.	£6,303
The Abingdon Bridge	The Abingdon Bridge is an Oxfordshire registered charity (CIO) which supports young people aged 13-25 in challenging circumstances. Their services are free for young people to access. Offering; 1 to 1 counselling, healthy lifestyles support groups, 1 to 1 wellbeing support, educational workshops (in the community and local schools).	£17,140
Earth Trust	Earth Trust supports the residents of South Oxfordshire by providing free access to our greenspaces 365 days/year. They also provide training, education and engagement opportunities for all ages.	£9,167

The Berin Centre	The Berin Centre offers drop-in sessions, parenting programmes, healthy cooking workshops, employment support, targeted courses such as First Aid and Food Hygiene, and provide a weekly base for the Health Visitor clinic. Riverside Counselling use the premises to deliver counselling and are partners in the Growing Minds school-readiness project. They also run a weekly Community Larder.	£7,271
Home-Start Southern Oxfordshire	Home-Start Southern Oxfordshire is a voluntary organisation committed to promoting the welfare of families who have at least one child under the age of five. They provide emotional and practical support to families with our trained home-visiting volunteers, parent and baby groups and expert support, helping them through their most challenging times.	£8,227
Wild Oxfordshire	Wild Oxfordshire is a local charity which provides a co-ordinated and strategic approach to nature conservation in Oxfordshire. Through providing support and encouraging individuals, communities and organisations to work together, Wild Oxfordshire is the catalyst for solutions that benefit people and wildlife within our rich and vibrant county.	£6,518
Sue Ryder Palliative Care Hub South Oxfordshire	The Sue Ryder Palliative Care Hub South Oxfordshire supports people aged 18 and over who are living with life-limiting conditions such as cancer, heart failure and lung disease. They combine specialist medical care for managing pain and other symptoms, with emotional, practical and spiritual support.	£8,339
Chiltern Centre Ltd	The Chiltern Centre is a disability centre in Henley-on-Thames offering a range of service, including respite care to young people (aged 16 – 30) with learning disabilities (often alongside physical disabilities and/or complex medical needs) and their families across South Oxfordshire.	£6,524
Be Free Young Carers	Be Free Young Carers is a local Oxfordshire charity, based in Didcot, that works with young carers aged 8 to 17 across South Oxfordshire.	£6,139
Millstream Day Centre	Benson Millstream Centre is a volunteer led charity called Millstream Day Centre and provides relief to elderly and disabled people and in particular those living in and around Benson, Ewelme, Berrick Salome,	£5,759

	Roke and Preston Crowmarsh by providing day care services and such other services as the trustees may decide from time to time.
Oxfordshire Play Association	Oxfordshire Play Association delivers a service across the whole of Oxfordshire including South Oxfordshire, and delivers a number of different projects such as play and activity days in Wheatley Junior Youth Club, Didcot / Vauxhall Barracks, Wallingford / RAF Benson, Berinsfield, and Wheatley.	£6,336
River Thame Conservation Trust	The River Thame Conservation Trust is a grassroots charity that operates in Oxfordshire. They aim to work with local people in rural and urban parts of their catchment – volunteers, farmers and landowners, to improve biodiversity of the River Thame and its tributaries, to improve public understanding, appreciation and enjoyment of the river catchment and its wildlife.	£7,314